

TRUXTON TRUST
A PRIVATE BANK

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Truxton Trust Adds Senior Financial Analyst Reggie Ford

NASHVILLE, TN, September 26, 2016 – Truxton Trust (OTCPK: TRUX) announced today that Reginald (Reggie) D. Ford, CPA, has joined the firm as Senior Financial Analyst. Reggie joined Truxton Trust from Deloitte & Touche LLP, where he worked as an Audit Senior Assistant. A Nashville native, Reggie earned his Master of Accountancy from Vanderbilt University’s Owen Graduate School of Management. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and an active board member at Backfield in Motion, Inc.

Andrew May, President and Chief Financial Officer, said, “Reggie is an esteemed and talented addition to Truxton Trust. We are extremely impressed by his financial aptitude and look forward to his contributions to the team.”

Tom Stumb, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, said, “As it has been from day one, our ambition is to continually recruit experienced individuals whose reputations for personal integrity and professional excellence rivals that of those who already work here. We found that in Reggie and are thrilled to have him on the team.”

About Truxton Trust

Truxton Trust is a full-service private bank and trust company founded in 2004. Since its inception, Truxton Trust has been focused on a singular guiding principle: do the right thing. Truxton Trust delivers the highest level of personal service through its vastly experienced and credentialed team of professionals who provide comprehensive and customized financial solutions to individuals, their families and their business interests.

Investor Relations

Andrew May 615-515-1707
andrew.may@truxtontrust.com

Media Relations

Tamara Schoeplein
615-515-1714
tamara.schoeplein@truxtontrust.com

###