TRUXTON TRUST COMPANY PROMOTES RITTER AND MULLOY; ADDS O'DONOGHUE

NASHVILLE, Tenn., December 14, 2015. Truxton Trust (TRUX – OTCPK) today announced the promotions of key professionals in its Private Bank.

Andrew Ritter was promoted to Vice President. Tom Snyder, Managing Director of the Private Bank said, “Andrew has become a creative and experienced banker and is a key contributor to our outstanding results in recent years.”

Lindsey Mulloy was promoted to Assistant Vice President. “Lindsay came to us a year ago, already a capable, knowledgeable banking professional. Truxton Trust is fortunate to have her,” Tom Stumb, Truxton’s CEO remarked.

In addition, Truxton announced the hiring of Matt O’Donoghue as a credit analyst. Matt has a varied finance background, most recently working for a private investment partnership in Chicago. He graduated from Indiana University in Bloomington.

A full-service bank and wealth management firm organized in 2003, Truxton Trust services include personal and business loans, depository accounts, wealth management and trust services. Personal, expert service is the bank's hallmark. Customers benefit from direct contact with senior-level, experienced bank executives who have decision-making authority and a full understanding of the local community and the client's relationship with the bank.
